

Manannah (Union) Century Church

Location: Meeker County Fairgrounds, 1230 N. Armstrong Ave., Litchfield, MN.

Built in 1897, the Manannah Union Church, now known as Manannah Century Church, relied on traveling pastors to lead its flock. When membership dwindled in 1985, the church closed its doors.

Esther Hegg, a longtime parishioner, bought the church at an auction. Hegg then lead the charge to move the church to the Meeker County Fairgrounds where it stands today.

The church is open every summer during the Meeker County Fair in August. Manannah (Union) Century Church is also available for rental. Please contact the Meeker County Fairgrounds at 320-593-3247 for more information.

Paynesville Area News article:

Manannah church to find new home at fairgrounds